

The Wheeler Way - Computing Curriculum INTENT

Computing lessons at Wheeler provide children with the knowledge, skills and understanding to apply fundamental principles of Computer Science to enable them to access and navigate safely around the online world in which we live.

The subject pillars are:

To understand and present our work with digital literacy

To be a ' Computational Thinker'

To communicate and collaborate through technology

To transfer skills across the curriculum

To know how to keep safe on the internet